Registration: Competitors are required to report to the Secretary on the arena NO LATER THAN 10:30am on the day of the event to complete their judging sheets.

Equipment Entrants may only use Australian Stockwhips. If the judges deem a whip is not in a safe working order, the competitor will be asked to use a replacement whip. A whip at least six foot in length (Not applicable to Pee Wee competitors), from keeper to commencement of fall, must be presented for measurement prior to, and then be used by, each competitor in the competition.

A competitor may not use a second person or animal during the competition.

Judging

Conduct: Any competitor heard swearing while competing will be disqualified immediately.

Protests: After the scores have been released at the end of each section the individual competitor has 15 minutes to lodge official protest with event secretary or nominated person accompanied by a fee of $50. Head Judges decision is final on day.

CODE OF ETHICS:

Dress: Suitable 'Australian—type costume' including a hat, should be worn. Neat and tidy appearance is suggested. Sneakers, baseball caps, thongs, tee-shirts and other inappropriate clothing will result in the deduction of points in presentation.

Whips: Whips other than Australian Stockwhips will not be allowed. All whips must be safe to use and should be presented in a well maintained condition.

Manners: Competitors should acknowledge the judges before and after their performance and at all times conduct themselves in a sporting way. Competitors in each event under progression must wait in a designated area while that competition is taking place.
